Education Update

The Oklahoman
USA TODAY NETWORK
Published Aug. 6, 2023

- According to Kids Count's annual report, Oklahoma ranks 46th for overall well-being and 49th in education.
- The average Oklahoma teacher's salary is $54,096.00. The average U.S. teacher's salary is $64,133.00.
- The Oklahoma Department of Education reports that in the 2013-2014 school year there were 189 Emergency Teacher Certifications. In the year 2021-2022, however, there were 3,616 Emergency Teacher Certifications.
- In 2020-2021 Oklahoma per-student spending by fall enrollment was $10,051.00. That ranks the state 46th nationally.
- The National Center for Education Statistics reports that the percentage of Oklahoma high school students that graduate on time is 81%; nationally the percentage is 87%.
- The number of Economically Disadvantaged students in Oklahoma is 390,820 or 56% of the total student population.
- The student-to-counselor ratio in Oklahoma is 374 to 1; however, The American School Counselor Association recommends a ratio of 250 to 1.

Shelly's Seeds

As the leaves turn vibrant shades of red, orange, and gold, and a crispness fills the air, we find ourselves in the majesty of fall — a season that reminds us that change can be beautiful. Whether adjusting to new administration or expectations, adopting new learning experiences that transform how we teach or transitioning to a retired lifestyle, teachers are continuously adapting to unique circumstances.

This year can be a change for Delta Kappa Gamma as we look for new ways to grow our chapter. Consider:

- Nurturing our new growth. What are we doing to make our new members feel welcomed and involved?
- Embracing diversity. One of the remarkable qualities of both our profession and chapters is our diversity. Be passionate and reach out to those who can bring unique talents to our organization.
- Planting the seeds of information about our organization in the vicinity of other educators. This information seeding may not produce members immediately, but you never know when the harvest will come.

- Looking at how our chapter can adapt to the changes in our profession and Society. Are there traditions we need to reconsider that could restrict the participation of others?
- Strengthening our foundation. Like the extensive root system that supports a tree, do we have a foundation that will support our members now and in the future? I believe we do; however, we must ensure it remains strong.

Just as we meet the changing seasons in our lives, so we also must adapt to the changes in our organization. Let us remain dedicated to the growth of our chapter so more women educators can enjoy the personal and professional benefits of our Society and our chapter. Beta

Beta members make a profound difference in our profession and our communities.

September Meeting Review

By Geri Hough
2nd Vice-president

On September 16, the ladies of Beta Beta Chapter met for the school year's first meeting.

Julie Simeroth, Yukon superintendent's wife and liaison for Beautiful Day at Independence Intermediate School, spoke to members about the benefits of this worthy organization. Beautiful Day organizes a monthly birthday celebration for Independence Intermediate and Redstone Intermediate 4th grade students. This party consists of pizza for those celebrating their birthdays that month and cupcakes for all the students. This celebration is something that all students eagerly anticipate.

After Mrs. Simeroth spoke, IIS principal Amy Young also addressed the membership to stress the importance of these celebrations. Both women encouraged members to consider volunteering with the organization. They also explained they need a liaison for Lakeview to bring back the program to these 4th graders also. Members enjoyed brunch, shared their brag bucks, and heard correspondence from members concerning membership and health issues.

Yearbooks were distributed.

The October meeting will be our yearly auction, with the proceeds benefiting our scholarship fund.

October Meeting Preview

Make plans for the October chapter meeting—better known as the Live Auction. This important and fun meeting raises money for scholarships.

Members have a wonderful time enjoying the company of our sisters, sharing great refreshments and entering into friendly bidding competitions for some incredible treasures.

What can you donate for the auction? Cash donations are always welcome, but the best part of the auction is the opportunity to take home extraordinary items up for bid. It's amazing how fast, loud and determined a quiet, easy-going teacher can make a bid when just the perfect item is on the auction block!

So, look for items you might donate to the auction.

- Home-made items such as jam, pies, cakes, quilts
- Seasonal decorations such as Halloween, Thanksgiving and Christmas
- Fan favorites such as Yukon, OU and OSU

October Service Project

Yukon Sharing

Our October service project is Yukon Sharing. Yukon Sharing Ministry is a nonprofit organization started in 1982 by a small group of dedicated Yukon City employees. Yukon Sharing is designed to help community members by supplying necessities for everyday living and resources necessary for independent living. They are in the heart of Yukon at 4 North 6th Street. Yukon Sharing is open Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday from 12:00 p.m.- 4:00 p.m.

Their mission is to provide a Hand Up to those in need. Many clients have had temporary setbacks due to unemployment or illness. Some clients are single - parent families with one income barely able to pay the rent. Others are senior citizens and the disabled facing spiraling medical costs.

Yukon Sharing serves over 1,000 clients each year. They have partnerships with schools, churches, businesses, individuals and various community and state organizations to help provide food, clothing, small appliances, senior meals, emergency utility bills, rent and Christmas baskets.

Giving hearts, such as the members of this chapter, embody Yukon Sharing Ministry's efforts, which makes their ministry as strong today as it was in 1982. In fact, Beta Beta sister Jaquita Icenhower serves on the Compassionate Sharing Board, which includes both Compassionate Hands and Yukon Sharing.

Yukon Sharing accepts monetary donations as well as the items listed below:

- Nutri Grain bars
- Granola bars
- Cheese & crackers
- Peanut butter & crackers
- Kid-friendly afterschool snacks
- Microwavable mac & cheese
- Quart-sized freezer bags

show, Anette Barrios-Torres as Maria. These people were kind to us and truly appreciated our role and presence.

The director wanted to show how the nuns became part of the resistance by the show's end. This was clear during the finale as we sang "Climb Every Mountain," and the Nazi flags were ripped from the walls. What made it even more meaningful was that the sisters who removed the flags were Jewish!

The songs still go through my mind, and my sisters became new friends! Who knows? Maybe we will share the stage again someday!

Spring of 2023 brought an opportunity I couldn't pass up! I was invited to join the nuns in the Order of Lyric Theatre! Of course, this invitation came after an audition for the Nun Chorus in Lyric's production of The Sound of Music.

The fun began in May with a nun fitting, rehearsals and a photo shoot at St. Francis Parish. We learned how to be a nun and to sing in Latin. In addition, we experienced life backstage at the Civic Center. With downtime during rehearsals and performances, the nuns had fun with Uno, reading, creating silly videos and getting to know each other. I was known as the Flying Nun! One nun created a private Facebook group, and we keep in touch.

There were more than 60 nuns in the chorus! Most of us were seen in the theatre on House Left or House Right and had three big scenes - the opening, the wedding, and the finale. A few sisters were in the box seat areas closest to the stage.

It was so much fun to interact with some of the other cast members, including the star of the

Beta Beta Ideas for You

Little Free Library

In my neck of the woods, you see quite a few of these. They are called Little Free Libraries and according to their website, 150,000 Little Free Libraries in 120 countries have shared over 300 million books.

Little Free Library is a non-profit organization based in St. Paul, Minnesota. Little Free Library book-sharing boxes are open seven days a week, 24 hours a day and are freely accessible to all, removing barriers to book access. Their mission is “to be a catalyst for building community, inspiring readers, and expanding book access for all through a global network of volunteer-led Little Free Library book exchange boxes.”

Maybe you are interested in becoming the librarian of your own Little Free Library. You can find plans for construction on the website or even purchase a prebuilt box. Consider the shelves' height and depth, especially if you have children's or hardcover adult books. Also, it must be placed somewhere accessible to someone pulling up in a car or walking. You will be responsible for keeping the library in good condition and rotating books in and out. Waterproofing and a strong latch are also important. The website will give you lots of information and help. What a wonderful gift for everyone in your neighborhood!

Kentucky Jam Cake

By Faye Hess

Back in my home state of Kentucky years ago, my Aunt Pearl Stuard McFarland made this “lovely cake” for our family gathering on Christmas night.

Kentucky Jam Cake with Caramel Frosting

1 cup soft butter	2 cup sugar
3 cups sifted all-purpose flour	5 eggs
1 tsp. baking soda	1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. cloves	1/2 tsp. allspice
1 cup buttermilk	1 cup raisins
1 cup seedless blackberry jam	1 cup chopped nuts

Faye Hess

Cream butter and sugar. Add eggs, one at time, beating well after each addition. Sift flour with soda, salt and spices. Add to creamed mixture alternatively with buttermilk. Stir in jam, nuts and raisins. Pour into 4 9-inch greased and floured cake pans. Bake at 325 degrees for about 35 minutes. Cool and frost.

Icing: 2 cups light brown sugar 1 cup granulated sugar
2 tbsp. corn syrup 3 tbsp. butter
2/3 cup cream 1 tsp. vanilla

Mix all ingredients in a saucepan and bring to a boil. Cover and cook for 3 minutes. Uncover and cook to 236 degrees on a candy thermometer or until a soft ball forms when dropped in cold water. Cool for 5 minutes; beat until thick and add a little hot water.

Beta Beta Chapter September Meeting

Vicki Bonny and Tonya Taylor are concentrating as the Detroit and Phoenix International Conference reports are given by chapter attendees.

Beta Beta Chapter September Meeting

Right: Trudy Capraro and Susie Grimes listen to the Beautiful Day presentation given by Independence liaison Julie Simeroth and Independence principal Amy Young.

Beautiful Day's original mission began with a simple statement to elementary school age kids: "The day you were born was a BEAUTIFUL DAY. Your life and existence is worthy of being celebrated." They are passionate about telling children this important message.

The best of all worlds. Karen Hanscom (left) is a new member and has so much to offer our chapter. Her knowledge of educational practices today will keep us up-to-date. Her enthusiasm and genuine interest adds to our engaged membership.

Debbie Schimmer (right) is a perfect example of our accomplished chapter member. She is an excellent mentor, sharing her knowledge and passion with new members.

Right: DeeAnn Meziere and Paula Walker thoughtfully consider the motion to make a chapter donation to Beautiful Day. The chapter donated $50.00 and with the added donations by individuals the total was $936.00. In a thank you note from Mrs. Sime-roth, the Beta Beta donations are able to fund 2 birthday celebrations.

A Look Inside the 2024 International Convention in National Harbor, Maryland

The 2024 DKG International Convention comes to National Harbor, Maryland, from July 9-13, 2024. Hosted at the Gaylord National Resort & Convention Center, attendees will enjoy gorgeous views of the Potomac River and access to waterfront terraces. The bustling town of National Harbor features malls, boutiques, casinos, wine bars, top-notch restaurants, and so much more. And, for a dive deep into American history, Washington, D.C., and Alexandria, Virginia, are only a short drive away.

Like those before it, the 2024 International Convention promises to deliver enlightening breakout sessions, the chance to network with fellow members from around the world, and the opportunity to shape the future of DKG as members gather to vote on proposed amendments to the Society's governing documents.

Two incredible keynote speakers are already lined up, with more excitement to come. Keep an eye on the DKG NEWS and www.dkg.org over the next few months for more information on this incredible, enriching event!

Gratitude Challenge

"Gratitude unlocks the fullness of life. It turns what we have into enough and more." Melody Beattie

The challenge put to you is this: Can you keep a Gratitude Calendar? See how many of the suggested Gratitude Exercises you can do in a month.

- Day 1: On a sticky note, write three things for which you are grateful.
- Day 2: Put those sticky notes on your bathroom mirror.
- Day 3: Go one day without complaining.
- Day 4: Send a thank you card or email to someone special.
- Day 5: Tell someone something you appreciate about them.
- Day 6: Look at pictures from a vacation you have taken.
- Day 7: Leave an unusually large tip.

- Day 8: What friend are you grateful for? Tell him/her.
- Day 9: What obstacle are you grateful to have overcome?
- Day 10: What lesson are you grateful to have learned and why?
- Day 11: Perform a random act of kindness. Write about what you did. How did it feel?
- Day 12: Leave money or a note in a library book.
- Day 13: Do something that brings you joy.
- Day 14: Listen to a song or music that makes you happy.
- Day 15: Spend at least 15 minutes outdoors in a place that makes you happy.
- Day 16: Think about a favorite memory.
- Day 17: Make a list of people in your life for whom you are thankful.
- Day 18: Send a card to a faraway friend.
- Day 19: Do another person's chore

- or duty for her/him.
- Day 20: Give a compliment to a register clerk and use his/her name.
- Day 21: Forgive someone today.
- Day 22: Give a compliment to someone at work.
- Day 23: Pay for someone's meal or coffee.
- Day 24: Donate warm clothing or items you don't need.
- Day 25: Leave a surprise for your mailman.
- Day 26: Bake a treat for your neighbors.
- Day 27: Leave a note of encouragement in a public place.
- Day 28: Tell your loved ones WHY you love them. Be specific.
- Day 29: Do a kindness for YOURSELF. Long walk, movie, nap, manicure, read, etc.
